ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL  25X1  25X1  OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL  Tuesday - 18 October 1977  25X1  25X1  25X1  1. LIAISON David Shaw, Senate Select  Committee on Intelligence staff, called to find out the purpose for the meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied  NFAC/CSS; ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy hir request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to g	X 1 .			Mendenial		OEV4
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL  Tuesday - 18 October 1977 25X1 25X1  1. LIAISON David Shaw, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to find out the purpose for the meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligenchearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligenchearing on Panama.  LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligenchearing on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy hir request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get			_		25 X 1	25 X 1
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL  Tuesday - 18 October 1977 25X1 25X1  1. LIAISON David Shaw, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to find out the purpose for the meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligenchearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligenchearing on Panama.  LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligenchearing on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy hir request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get	÷
1. LIAISON David Shaw, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to find out the purpose for the meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied NFAC/CSS; ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy hir request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio			ADDENI	OUM TO JOURNAL	25 X 1	25X1
LIAISON David Shaw, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to find out the purpose for the meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied  NFAC/CSS: ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.), Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired on the day is not provided that Oman would have to officially write the Agency toget this information	:	0	FFICE OF L	EGISLATIVE COUN	SEL
LIAISON David Shaw, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to find out the purpose for the meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied  NFAC/CSS: ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.), Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired on the day is not provided that Oman would have to officially write the Agency toget this information			Tuesday	- 18 October 1977	25 X 1	25 V 1
Committee on Intelligence staff, called to find out the purpose for the meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied  NFAC/CSS;  Intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.  Covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.				- 10 0010001 1/11	20,71	20/(1
Committee on Intelligence staff, called to find out the purpose for the meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied  NFAC/CSS;  Intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.  Covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.			-
meeting the Director had set up with Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.) on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2. BRIEFING Accompanied NFAC/CSS; ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.  covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.		1.		LIAISON David Sha	w, Senate Sel	ect on 20 October. I told Shaw I thought it was simply a courtesy call but would check for sure and let him know.  2.  NFAC/CSS;  ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.  covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3.  ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4.  LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5.  LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information of the staff of the materia had that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information and the contact.	Con	imittee on Intelli	igence staff,	called to find out th	e purpose for	the BRIEFING Accompanied NFAC/CSS; ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligen hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy hi request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio	mee	ting the Directo	r had set up	with Senator Richard	l G. Lugar (R.	., Ind.)
NFAC/CSS;  Intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.  Covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligent hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	on 2	O October. I to	ld Shaw I tho	ught it was simply a	courtesy call	but
NFAC/CSS:  ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information of the interior of the property of the financial with the Agency to get this information of the interior of the property of the financial with the Agency to get this information of the interior of the property of the financial of the property of the property of the financial of the property of	wou	ld check for sur	e and let him	know.
NFAC/CSS:  ORPA, to a substantive intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information of the interior of the property of the financial with the Agency to get this information of the interior of the property of the financial with the Agency to get this information of the interior of the property of the financial of the property of the property of the financial of the property of		 	to a series			14-1
NFAC/CSS; intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.  covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.		2.		BRIEFING Accom	panied intelligence briefing of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.  covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio	NFA	C/CSS;			-
covered a few items of current interest and then turned the session over to who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3. ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	inte	lligence briefing	of the Senat	e Select Committee	on Intelligence who briefed for appoximately one and one half hours on the current Soviet leadership. (See Memorandum For The Record)  3.	COV	red a few items	of current i	ntarast and than turn	on interrigence	·
3.  ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  4.  LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5.  LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	to	,- ou a 10 W 1001119	who being	for a service to the turn	ted the session	over
ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Deliver to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligenthearing on Panama.  LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio		ha annumb (7	MIO DITEIED	ior appoximately on	e and one half	hours
to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligent hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the material he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	Ont	ne current Sovie	t leadership.	(See Memorandum	For The Reco	ord)
to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, an interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligenthearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the material he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio	n de la Parti de la la la la la gra ga. La grafia			(1) 10 전 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10		-
interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio	. San	. 3.		ADMINISTRATIVE	- DELIVERIE	S Deliver interim letter to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii) from Mr. Cary regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligence hearing on Panama.  LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio	to A	udrey Hatry, Cl	erk, Senate regarding a recent Committee inquiry related to KCIA activities; and a letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligent hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	inte	rim letter to Cha	airman Danie	l K. Inouve (D. Ha	waii) from Mr	. Carr letter to Chairman Inouye from Admiral Turner transmitting the answer to a question asked at the 16 September Senate Select Committee on Intelligent hearing on Panama.  4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	rega	rding a recent (	Committee in	quirer related to VCI	wait, itolii ivii	Cary LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate  Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the material he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	1 ette	r to Chairman I	pour from	during related to NCI	A activities; a	and a
4. LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	too	averties ested	nouve from A	Admirai Turner tran	smitting the a	nswer
LIAISON Met with Don Sanders, Senate  Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the material he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	to a	question asked a	it the 16 Sept	ember Senate Select	Committee or	n Intelliger
Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the material he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio	near	ing on Panama.
Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the material he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio
Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his request for additional information on I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the material he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio		4.		LIAISON Met with	Don Sanders.	Senate
I told him I believed we would be able to satisfy his request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the material he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	Sele	ct Committee on	Intelligence	staff. regarding his	request for a	dditional request later in the day. However, later in the day I sent half of the materia he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	info	rmation on	I told	him I believed we w	ould be able to	esticte hi he had requested via courier and told him there were some problems with the financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have i ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.			day Howay	ar later in the day I	ourd be able if	bacisty in financial data and that it would be a couple more days before we would have it ready. He said this was fine.  5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.	he h	ed requested via	aay. Howev	told him the day i	sent nam of t	ne materia
5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information	fina	ad requested via	courier and	told nim there were	some problem	ns with the
5. LIAISON Called Ralph Oman, in the office of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information	iinai	icial data and the	at it would be	e a couple more days	s before we wo	ould have i
of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information	read	y. He said this	was fine.		•
of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information		,			x *
of Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.). Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information		5.		LIAISON Called Ra	lph Oman, in	the office Committee on Intelligence staff, had previously given me the names of two Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information	of Se	enator Charles M	AcC. Mathias	(R. Md.). Jean F	lvans Senate	Select Agency employees whom Oman, formerly with the State Department, wanted to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information	Com	mittee on Intelli	gence staff	had previously giver	me the name	g of two to contact. I told Oman that one is still with the Agency and we had passed Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information	Δαε	cr employees w	hom Omen	farmania with the Ch	i me the name	s or two Oman's address and phone number to him. The other, however, had retired and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information	40.00	onto en I tala O	nom Oman,	iormerly with the St	ate Departmer	it, wanted and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this informatio	10 60	ontact. I told Or	nan that one	is still with the Age	ncy and we had	d passed and that Oman would have to officially write the Agency to get this information.  He agreed to do so.	Oma	n's address and	phone number	er to him. The other	r, however, h	ad retired
He agreed to do so.	and t	hat Oman would	have to office	cially write the Agen	cy to get this	informatio
	He a	greed to do so.		.
Colombia Colombia di Albania				الم المعلقة ال
			17:33	The Property of the Parket		